①

55 Florence Road, BN1 6DL

Come and visit a sunny tea garden, with a summer house that wants to be a beach hut, two friendly cats, pond (unfenced), small vegetable garden, herbs and roses. Main attractions are delicious light lunches, expect to leave heavier than when you arrived! Entry via the side of the house. Free on-street parking.

OPEN 12th & 19th July, 11am - 5pm

②   NEW

18 Shaftesbury Road, BN1 4NE

A low maintenance small town garden combining decking and ornamental stone areas. Planted with drought friendly plants, phormiums, grasses and bamboos. Red hot pokers and Cape Daisies provide colour. Water feature and sculpture from local artists.

OPEN 12th & 19th July, 11am - 5pm

③   NEW

40 Shaftesbury Road BN1 4NE

A small, secluded garden that has been in the family for seventeen years – ten years ago they changed the garden from a sloping lawn to one with several levels with three seating areas and a bricked central area with full borders. The garden is low maintenance and includes a water feature. Planting includes several pittosporum, box, agapanthus and a small apple tree.

OPEN 12th July ONLY, 11am - 5pm

④   NEW

71 Florence Road, BN1 6DL

Find out all you need to know about converting your garden into a vegetable garden in a small space. This vegetable garden is complete with four raised beds, growing vegetables, fruit and salad. By July, the garden should be full of beans, carrots, beetroot, lettuce, tomatoes, peppers and courgettes – otherwise it has all gone wrong....!

Come and see for yourself.

OPEN 12th & 19th July, 12 - 5pm

⑤   NEW

118 Springfield Road, BN1 6DL

Ten years ago, when the owners moved in, this small garden was nothing but mud, breeze blocks and old tyres. It is now quite mature, though still evolving. With the green backdrop of the railway line it is a sunny and tranquil space.

OPEN 19th July ONLY, 11am - 5pm

⑥

5 Warleigh Road, BN1 4NT

This garden is being developed by horticultural lecturer Bridgette Saunders and her partner Graham Lee. A work in progress, it is totally organic and uses lots of recycled materials. The garden extends behind other houses to make a large space. Bridgette also runs courses, garden visits and workshops – see www.gardenhousebrighton.co.uk Please use side entrance. Plants and garden paraphernalia for sale. Some uneven surfaces.

OPEN 19th July ONLY, 11am - 5pm
