①

27 Cliff Gardens, BN10 7BX

This is a garden full of colour, variety and interest. Flowering plants set in borders and island beds are backed up by evergreen foliage and ornamental trees. There's so much to see: including brilliant hanging baskets, pots of dahlias, and beds of Zinia, Salvia and gazanias. Enter by left hand side entrance. Wheelchair accessible. Unfenced pond. Plants for sale. Tea and biscuits available

OPEN 12th July ONLY 11am - 5pm

②

31 Highview Road, Telscombe Cliffs, BN10 7AY

This busy garden has an amazing collection of over 100 pots. Planted with all sorts of colourful shrubs and trees and a mixed border crammed full of flowers. The unusual "dustbin garden" may inspire those short of space, hopefully with runner beans and courgettes in abundance.

OPEN 12th & 19th July, 11am - 5pm

③

Louvain Nursery, 66 Telscombe Road, BN10 7UB

An organic nursery with extensive mature landscaped gardens and vegetable beds, all fully certified by the Soil Association. Three passive solar houses are being fabricated in Germany by Davinci for erection on part of the site later this year.

OPEN 12th & 19th July, 11am - 5pm

④

82 Telscombe Cliffs Way, BN10 7DE

A long winding garden established over decades, various trees and shrubs, mature cordyline and bamboo. Fascinating exterior accessories by Jayne Ford add a contemporary dimension to the natural setting. An unfenced pond to relax by with Gothic architecture, flora and fauna. Inside is a display of paintings by Janet Rowlands and photographs by Julie Hutchinson. There is a friendly Lurcher to meet and greet you

OPEN 12th & 19th July, 11am - 5pm

GARDEN CENTRE

At last a garden centre in the heart of Brighton selling all the usual (and some unusual) plants - grasses, shrubs, climbers, herbs - and more. Together with a range of pots, composts, feeds and lights, you'll find everything you need to create the perfect outside space - whether it's a window box, a courtyard, a roof terrace or half an acre. And if you don't see what you want - let us know and we'll try our best to get it for you. We also deliver to central Brighton and the surrounding areas.

So come and visit us and see why we are one of Brighton's most original and interesting independent shops.
